WETASKIWIN, Nov. 14th.

The Wetaskiwin land office has been closed until spring. This action on the part of the brilliant authorities at Ottawa has caused considerable indignation here, in as much as Wetaskiwin has for the last two years held the record amongst the Northwest offices for homestead entries, and during the winter months there is bound to be much business transacted. Settlers are continually applying for general information, timber permits have to be issued, patents granted, entries for land made, etc., and when we have to consider that these people will have to pay their expenses to Red Deer and back, it would seem impolitic and undesirable on the part of the government to close the office of such an exceptionally busy district.
The most extraordinary feature of this affair is that Mr. Ferguson, the land agent, has been assigned for the winter to Red Deer, where there is already another agent, who, it is understood, is also to remain there. A farewell banquet was tendered Mr. Ferguson, at the Grand hotel, by the citizens, which proved a great success. General regret is expressed at the departure of Mr. Ferguson, who is held in high esteem by the people of the town and country alike. He will be much missed until the office is re-opened.

REV. A. WHITESIDES, of Edna, is in town.
GEO. HAMPER of the Saddle Lake Indian agency arrived today.
REV. GEO. W. DEAN is expected to return from Banff to night.

A CAR of dressed beef was shipped from Red Deer to St. John, N. B., on Friday's train of last week. A car similarly laden was sent a week or two before.
G. I. CLINK, of Wetaskiwin, was in town last week. Mr. Clink has had a portable saw mill in operation on Crooked lake, northeast of Wetaskiwin, during the past summer, which cut about 50,000 feet of lumber, intended chiefly for the Wetaskiwin market.
ED. WILLIAMS has bought out Mr. Bluff's place a mile and a half this side of Athabasca Landing and has fitted it up as a stopping place for freighters. Mr. Williams has erected new buildings and improved the old ones so as to furnish comfortable quarters to travellers.
THE Free Press gives an elaborate account of the marriage at Banff on Oct. 1st of Dr. A. Holmes Simpson, of Winnipeg, to Miss Frances Stewart, daughter of Geo. A. Stewart, superintendent of the Rocky Mountain park. Dr. Simpson is a brother of Mrs. Geo. F. Sanderson, of Edmonton.
THE ordinances of the Territories passed at last session of the Northwest assembly are to hand. They make a book of 147 pages. There is very little new legislation, and the school law amendments which were probably the most important matter introduced are conspicuous by their absence, thanks to the veto of the lieutenant-governor.
AT D. Maloney's farm St. Albert, last week W. Walker's traction thrasher, put through 1174 sacks of oats in a day, besides removing. The sacks weighed from 94 to 98 pounds each. This would make the day's threshing considerably over 3,000 bushels. This is the only thrasher in the district which supplies its own crew. The charge is 3 cents for oats and 4 cents for wheat. Other machines, who do not supply the crew, charge 2 cents and 3 cents a bushel.
A MEETING was held at the barracks, Fort Saskatchewan, on Oct. 22nd, for the purpose of re-organizing the hockey club; the following officers were elected. Patron Major Greenback; 1st vice-patron, Inspt. Primrose; 2nd vice-patron, J. T. Plintoff; president, Capt. Howard; 1st vice-president, C. H. H. Sweetapple; 2nd vice-president, A. K. McLaughlin; honorary captain, G. M. Graham; sec. -treas., Gordon Wright; committee, C. E. Dyer, W. Lamb, W. Blyth, E. Boake and G. S. Boulton; uniform, blue jerseys with N. W. M.P. in gold across front, blue knickerbockers, blue stockings, blue Tam-O-Shanters.

A joint stock company is being organized in Kamloops to put up a $30,000 hotel.

MONDAY's train brought 1 car flour from Winnipeg for E. Brosseau of St. Albert, and one way car.
Mrs. J. D. McBRIDE and little daughter returned home Monday from a six weeks visit with friends and relatives in Innisfail and Red Deer.

JAS. McDONALD has had some of the mica which was brought from the Rockies last year, fitted into a stove door. It is of excellent quality, as clear as glass.

DURING the first six months of the present year there were 249 homestead entries in the Wetaskiwin land office, 143 in the Red Deer office, 122 in Edmonton and 53 in Calgary. During the corresponding six months of 1894 Wetaskiwin had 187 entries.

THE November number of the Canadian Magazine has a number of bright original articles on current topics. Some of them beautifully illustrated. In a very vigorous article Reginald Gourlay tells what he thinks about the "New Woman" as she expresses herself in modern fiction. The Canadian Magazine is $2.50 per year. Published in Toronto.

A MEETING of the Old Timers Association was held in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening. The president Jax Gibbons in the chair. Owing to the small attendance an adjournment was made until Tuesday evening, Nov. 19th, at the same place at the hour of 8 o'clock, when the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place; and the time and method of holding the annual re-union will be decided upon.

ROSEBUSH public school district No. 396 has been gazetted with J. R. Richardson, Anton Anderson and C. Vaughan trustees. The area contained is described as follows: Sections 19, 20, 21, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 33 in township 44, range 22; sections 4, 5 and 6 in township 45, range 22; section 24 in township 44, range 23; that portion of section 1 in township 45, range 23, lying east of the Battle river and those portions of sections 25 and 26 in township 44, range 23 lying east of the Battle river; all west of the 4th meridian.

W. T. REES, a well known coal miner, died suddenly on Monday night about eleven o'clock. He had been working in his mine all day in apparently good health. In the evening he complained of a pain in his head which rapidly extended downward to his heart, when death ensued. He was born and reared in North Wales, and has resided at Edmonton since 1881, being always engaged in coal mining, and of late years has worked a mine on his own account on the property of K. Macdonald. He has no relatives in this country. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, under the management of some of his former employers in coal mines. The body was brought to the town hall, where the funeral services were read by Rev. A. Stunder. From there the funeral proceeded to the Edmonton cemetery. The pall bearers were K. Macdonald, Frank Hall, James Gibbons, James Price, W. Humberstone and S. Moran.

D. MACARTHUR, of Winnipeg, arrived on Monday's train, to attend to some land matters connected with the Fritchard estate in which he holds a large interest, and also to see for himself far famed Edmonton. Like most other visitors Mr. MacArthur is much impressed with the beauty, fertility and abounding natural resources of this region. The rank vegetation, the rich soil, the wealth of coal, gold and timber combined in the one locality ensure the building of a prosperous country and a wealthy city. Mr. MacArthur was the first applicant for a charter for a Hudson's Bay railway, some fifteen years ago, and although owing to hostile legislation the scheme fell through, he still has full faith in that route as being the true solution of the freight problem for the people of all parts of the Northwest; but owing to the great hostile interests which have come into existence since the H. B. charter was first applied for, which have been growing while it was lying dormant, he fears that we are not as near getting a railway to Hudson's Bay now as we were fifteen years ago.

REV. J. O. STRINGER, of the Church of England mission to the Esquimaux at Peel's river, who is now in Winnipeg, was asked by a Free Press reporter, "How do you get along in the way of correspondence, papers, etc?" "We sometimes get our mail three times a year, but twice is the general thing; once in May, and once in July. The winter packet leaves Edmonton in January, and reaches Peel river in May. There will be a mail from Fort Simpson this winter, with news of Bishop Reeve's doings. I think, which should reach Edmonton in February." "You speak of civilization?" "Well, it's the end of the C. P. R. for us. From Edmonton to Fort Simpson is 1,000 miles, and that is just half way to Peel river, so there's many a league between us."

The above evidence as to the range of Edmonton's influence is to the point and can hardly be gainsaid. How many towns in Canada or on the continent are directly the commercial centre for points 2,000 miles distant?

At a political meeting held recently at Lumsden, north of Regina, Mr. Jelly, ex-M. L. A., for the district, spoke as follows regarding the Territorial exhibition. "Look at the way money was squandered on the Territorial exhibition. Did the lieutenant-governor take the best way of conducting the exhibition? Did he consider the Northwest at all? The money was money voted for the Northwest and if you look at the management you find that the people were brought to Winnipeg to do almost everything, and this at a time when the people of the Northwest would have been only too glad to have earned some of the money. (Cheers.) The Dominion government gave $25,000 and the Territorial government $10,000; they knew how the thing was managed and yet $800 was expended on a champagne supper. He thought the farming community contributed every cent of that. The organization of the patrons of industry was to strike at such scandals and to enable the people to look after their own interest."

A CAR of cattle purchased by Mr. Lineham during his recent visit is being loaded to day. Many of the cattle have to ford the river.

GEO. D. WOOD, a leading hardware merchant of Winnipeg, arrived on Monday's train, to satisfy himself as to the glories of Edmonton.

THE river is still running ice and crossing is done by skiff. The ice is getting thicker and was jammed this morning at Ross' point. At Ft. Saskatchewan all crossing is suspended.

ON Monday R. Second purchased a $150 lot of fur from Narcisse Beaudry, of St. Albert. Owing to there being no snow there is very little trapping as yet.

A SPECIAL meeting of the town council was held on Wednesday afternoon to consider a reply to an important telegram regarding the proposed Edmonton district railway received from Mr. Jennings.

W. TOOLE and J. E. Forslund, of the C. P. R. land and immigration department, arrived on Monday's train. On Wednesday they visited the German settlements on Stony Plain. They found the people well supplied with the necessities of life and improving in their general condition, and in the number of their cattle. The general complaint was the low price of produce and consequent scarcity of cash. They are, however, well satisfied with their choice of location and are stayers, in the best sense of the word.

VICTORIA Colonist: Rev. J. O. Stringer preached in Christ church on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Stringer has just returned from a four year's sojourn in the Arctic regions. His remarks were full of interesting facts. He states that the population of the British possessions in the Mackenzie river country is rapidly increasing, as Indians and miners would sooner live in the Queen's country than in Alaska. There is a great deal of placer mining on the Mackenzie river and the Arctic slope, but the miners are demoralizing the Indians and an uprising is feared. The nearest British authority is at Fort Cudahy, too far away to be of any good effect, or the least check on the morals and lives of bad white men and demoralized Indians.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOVEMBER 14th, 1895.

OH, WHAT A DIFFERENCE IN THE MORNING!

The Regina Leader of last issue heads its leading article, "He should be re-called," and then proceeds to a statement regarding the condition of the finances of the recent Territorial exhibition and the connection of Lieutenant-governor Mackintosh therewith, which is embodied in language more expressive than polite; and yet not as definite as could be desired. It may be gathered from the article that a large number of the accounts of the exhibition remain unpaid, and that while the lieutenant-governor is held responsible for the payment as "manager extraordinary" of the exhibition he is either unable or unwilling, not only to pay them, but come to any understanding as to their payment. In fact it would appear that the expenditure on the exhibition had outrun the appropriation and that the lieutenant-governor did not know how the deficit was to be made up. A most unfortunate condition of affairs truly—especially for those who on this occasion have metaphorically "put their trust in princes." It is inconceivable that with government aid amounting to $35,000, and the legitimate revenues of such a phenomenally successful show, if the management had been ordinarily careful, that it should now be in debt. Either the show was not what it was represented to be or the finances have been scandalously mismanaged, or it may be that there is a good deal of both. What is wanted is not abuse of the lieutenant-governor, but a plain statement of the facts of the case, and a plain proposal as to how the just debts of the enterprise are to be paid. The BULLETIN has never had occasion to say the sweet nothings about His Honor, and his abilities, and his greatest show on earth, that some other Territorial papers have found occasion for—not excepting the Leader—but on the other hand it has no inclination to make His Honor the scape goat of a mistake, to which he of course was a party, but for which the government at Ottawa was jointly responsible. The Dominion government gave him the money and authorization for a scheme that was foredoomed to failure either financial or otherwise. Without the most elaborate faking the show would have amounted to nothing as a show. It was faked and faked successfully, but this made it a failure financially. That is all there is to it. Circumstances were against the show. The government, probably on the lieutenant-governor's advice but not less on their own responsibility, appropriated $25,000 towards the scheme. That was money that in the first instance should have gone to the general public purposes of the Territories, and if not to those purposes then to the relief of the distressed settlers in the very district where the show was to be held. The government saw fit to ignore the increasing needs of the Territories and to shut its ears to the appeals of the settlers for assistance, in order that they might aid this pet project. They stood ready to appropriate their full share of the honor of its successes, let them also stand ready to accept the full cost of its failures. In this matter the lieutenant-governor was directly the agent of the government. That they could not have chosen a better to make the exhibition a triumphant success, must be universally acknowledged. That he is not possessed of equal abilities as a financier no one knows better than those who appointed him their agent. But the main thing was to make the exhibition a success, which was done, and now apparently they object to paying the bills; and the Leader, which as long as the show was being gotten up and the money was being spent, was hurrahing for His Honor as the magician who was creating something out of nothing, now wants to throw the whole blame on the irresponsible agent instead of on the responsible principals. The point which the Leader makes is that certain men are not paid money that is owing them. The only legitimate object in calling attention to this fact is to secure payment of the accounts. Is it expected that the lieutenant-governor can pay them out of his own pocket? If he is to assume the burden, it will be a long time before they are paid. But if these who are really responsible for those accounts being incurred can throw claimants off on that scent, no doubt they will do so. And the Leader is trying to help them. If it is desired that the accounts shall be paid, it is necessary in the first place to bring the matter to the attention of the government which is responsible for the exhibition. Let them hold an accounting with their agent, the lieutenant-governor, and then supply the deficit whatever it may be. This is the proper thing to do. It is the only thing to do. The people of the Northwest did not ask for the show and the only terms upon which they were willing to accept it were that the Dominion should pay for it. Apparently it is now proposed that after the Territories being compelled to stand the first cost of this show, for which they did not ask, and did not want on such terms, a number of the people of the Territories who were so unfortunate as to do business with the accredited agent of the Dominion shall personally bear the whole burden of the deficit. Recalling the lieutenant-governor will not give these people their money, of which the government surely does not propose to avoid payment on the quibble that in this case it cannot be held responsible at law for the acts of its agent.

SIR JOHN SCHULTZ.

Free Press. Sir John and Lady Schultz have returned from the west and received a warm welcome back. Many were the enquiries regarding the effect upon his health of his recent visit in search of its improvement and whether he had really found that Northern Alberta justified the high opinion he had always expressed regarding its future. Sir John said: "I will be back in the city early next week, and then will have time and be prepared to show you some things which were brought to me from the east slope of the Jasper pass, which seemed to some to have solved one of the mysteries of the extensive placer mining, which makes a gold scale one of the necessities of each bank and of many merchants' office." Sir John gave a graphic sketch of the clear, beautiful, rapid river, closed in by its 200 feet high banks; the effect of the mellow autumnal haze which clothed a gently rolling, beautiful agricultural country with that peculiar charm which only Indian summer can give. Crossing the North Saskatchewan, one may see indications of the varied resources of this opulent district, which only awaits the rousing hand of capital and population. The hotel bus may cross on a ferry with a wagon load of piping and borers of the petroleum wells at Athabasca Landing, or with supplies for Jasper House and the Great Slave Lake. You see underlying the town and opening on to the ferry road the pits months, whence excellent coal is delivered in your back yard at Edmonton for a dollar and fifty cents per ton. On the bank of the river you see "old grizzlies," which have in their time washed out the golden sand from the upper river, and a little further up a gold dredge being hauled up to her winter quarters on the bank; lumber yards, where I saw jointed 40 feet long; bands of horses that wintered out and came in fat in the spring; cattle whose excellence for beef can be excelled nowhere; a population resolute, hardy, patient, being, as is always the case, comprised of the bold able and capable, who are first to leave the home nest, and come after lasting names for themselves in the development of new countries. A weary wait they have had for the reward which he thought could not fail to come, and meantime, if active steps by those in authority were taken at once, great advancement could be made before spring again unlocked those northern waters. "You seem to have been well received up there, Sir John: and is Manitoba really to lose your services after all these years?" "My reception was kindness itself, the warm-hearted generous kindness of the west showing itself in the many addresses, banquets, receptions, serenades and drives, and the climate showing its healthfulness by enabling me to speak for an hour and a half at the opera house the first evening after my arrival, and for over an hour at the banquet of the next evening. No, I shall never forget the warmth and kindness of my reception by all classes in Northern Alberta." Sir John and Lady Schultz will be in the city on Monday, or at least Tuesday of next week. Both show the good effect of their western trip, noticeably Sir John, whose voice is strong, while he himself has greatly gained in weight and good color.

Free Press: Six cars of wheat were received yesterday by the C. P. R. land department from settlers in the west in payment for lands sold to them and which are being paid for in grain under the new regulations. Up to this date 45 cars have been sent and the department expect to receive over half a million bushels this year. The wheat is sent to Fort William and sold to brokers.

PONOKA.

A meeting of the settlers around Ponoka was held in the house of Mr. Alger for the purpose of taking into consideration the advisability of forming an agricultural society. Mr. Alger briefly explained the object of the meeting and gave a few useful hints of procedure. He was unanimously elected to the chair by those present. Alex. Kennedy was elected secretary. After an exchange of ideas by those present, the motion of Alex. Kennedy and W. Reid "That this meeting do now take action to organize an agricultural society," passed without dissent. The following names were then signed, with the promise of each to work in the interest of the society until formed: C. D. Alger, H. Maxfield, Joseph Lowery Ledgerwood, Andrew Reid, H. P. McLeod, Frank S. Smith, W. M. Reid, David Bishop Robinson, Alexander Kennedy, Noah Wakeford, R. H. Winter.

On motion of A. Reid and H. P. McLeod it was agreed to meet again on Nov. 19th. The chairman then stated that it was also part of the object of the meeting to take into consideration the getting of a post office at Ponoka. After a few general remarks it was moved by Alex. Kennedy and H. Maxfield "That it is the opinion of this meeting that it is most desirable by the settlers of this district to have a post office at Ponoka." Carried. On motion of D. B. Robinson and F. S. Smith it was agreed that the proceedings of the meeting be sent to the Calgary Herald and Edmonton Bulletin. Business being concluded a few lively melodies were played by Misses Alger and McLeod and meeting dispersed, to meet on the 19th.

Nov. 5th, 1895.

THE YUKON.

A detachment of Canadian Mounted police, twenty men in all, officers included, composed the Yukon force. The detachment at Ottawa received on Nov. 5th, the first report of Inspector Constantine, who is in command of the force there. The report is dated September 25th, and it has taken exactly two months to reach the capital. Constantine's previous communication was a brief note, dated July 27th, or three days after he and his men arrived at Fort Cadahay. In the interval a dozen constables had been up in the woods cutting logs for huts, while the remainder were clearing ground for the proposed barracks. The police post is located at the junction of Forty-Mile creek, with the Yukon river. The whole country thereabouts is covered with dense woods, ranging from five to ten feet in thickness, and when this is cleared away ground is struck. The earth where covered is frozen solid the year round. Constantine says the winter quarters will be completed by the end of September. Meantime all stores have been safely housed and protected. Yankee reports about the construction of forts and stockades he characterizes as simply puppy cock. Since the arrival of the police at Fort Cadahay the feeling of mistrust with which they were greeted had passed away and the police were on friendly terms with the population of the town which this winter will number about 2,000. The output from the mines around Fort Cadahay this season will be about $300,000, all the result of placer mining. The government's action in sending a force in and asserting British ownership of the district is more than justified by the collection of over $7,000 for customs and other dues, and this amount Inspector Constantine remitted to Ottawa. Last year the commandant brought back with him over $3,000 collected for revenue. Surveyor Ogilvie arrived at the fort the middle of August and at the time the mail left was busily engaged in a survey of the townsite. The Yukon river was expected to freeze up the middle of September.

VOTE HATCHERY.

Free Press: D. H. Macdowell, M. P., has drawn the attention of the fisheries department to the depletion of fish in many of the lakes in the district of Saskatchewan and has urged that steps be taken to restock these lakes for the benefit of the Indians and future white settlers. The only way in which this can be done effectively seems to be by the establishment of subsidiary hatcheries in the Territories, and Professor Prince will recommend that a hatchery be located at a central point in the Territories with a view to keeping up the supply of fish in the lakes. Macdowell cites particularly Green lake, in which the fish supply has fallen off.

A special cable to the Montreal Star says the British government will introduce a bill to permanently exclude all live stock except for slaughter at British ports. This will finally close the market to live Canadian cattle.

A million pounds of wool was shipped from Manitoba and the Northwest during the past season, two thirds of which was from the western ranches. The average price was 10 cents a pound. At this rate the export realized $105,000.

Winnipeg Nor-West: Rev. J. O. Stringer has just arrived in the city from San Francisco. Mr. Stringer has been working since 1889, in the C. M. S. mission on the Mackenzie river. He is deeply interested in the Esquimaux, and is ever willing to talk about them. It is generally supposed that there are about 2,000 Esquimaux in the country. For a long time they and the Indians were constantly at war, but there is none of that now. They are very superstitious, and allow themselves to be very much deluded by their medicine men. Papers and letters only reach the missionaries three times a year, sometimes only twice. Edmonton is to them the centre of civilization, although it is 2,000 miles distant. Mr. Whitaker, a Wycliffe college student, has been doing good work there. He is at present in charge of Mr. Stringer's mission.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.
The annual meeting of the Edmonton Electric Light Co. was held in the town hall last night, A. D. Osborne in the chair, Mr. Geo. Jelliff secretary. The financial statement and auditors' report were read and the report was referred to a committee consisting of J. A. McDougall, H. Goodridge and N. D. Beck to report at a meeting of shareholders to be held on Nov. 27th. The following board of directors was elected: J. A. McDougall, Alex. Taylor, John Kelly, J. A. Ross, Geo. Bull, A. D. Osborne, D. R. Fraser. The new board of directors then met and J. A. McDougall was re-elected president, Alex. Taylor vice-president, and John Kelly, managing director.
The financial statement values the plant at $15,477. The running expenses for the year were $3,151.41. The revenue from lights, $4,829.43. Actual gain in revenue over running expenses, without deductions for depreciation of plant for year, $1,251.96. As compared with last year the revenue increased $292.96 and the running expenses increased $178.18. The auditor reported that the books had been correctly kept. The reference of the auditor's report to a committee is for the purpose of arriving at a proper charge for depreciation of value in plant.

SERGEANT COLEBROOK'S DEATH.
The Prince Albert Times gives the following report showing the manner in which Sergeant Colebrooke met death: "Last Tuesday a couple of Indians were arrested on One Arrow's reserve on a charge of cattle killing. They were arrested and brought into Duck Lake during the night. While Const. Dickson was on guard one of the prisoners escaped. Suspecting that he would take a southerly direction, Sergeant Colebrooke, accompanied by Police Scout McKay, started in pursuit, and took the trail which led in the direction of the Touchwood Hills. On the second day they found the culprit was making towards Fort la Corne, and they followed this trail, when Sergeant Colebrooke and a man named Dumont, came suddenly upon the Indian who were in quest of, who with his squaw had camped alongside the trail. The Indian, who it appears was armed with a shot gun, at once jumped to his feet and told them to stop or he would shoot. Colebrooke, nothing daunted, kept on advancing revolver in hand, till within a few feet of his intended prisoner, who suddenly pulled the trigger, of his gun and sent a ball crashing through his pursuer's right breast, killing him instantly. He then secured the dead man's arms and horse and made his escape."
Prince Albert Advocate: Const. Dickson, the man who led the Indian who shot Sergeant Colebrooke escape, was tried and sentenced to two months for the offence. He was brought to Prince Albert and is confined in the guard room. As a further punishment and an appeal to his conscience, he was marched to the cemetery under an escort and made to dig the grave of the murdered man.

WHEAT AT MOOSE JAW.
Moose Jaw Times: Threshing will soon be completed and the Moose Jaw crop will be ready for market. To say the least the present outlook is very disappointing. The yield is not up to expectation, owing no doubt to the hot wind that struck the district last July, and the shortage in supply is made perceptibly shorter by the price. So far very little grain has been marketed at this point for various reasons. Farmers have realized that a dollar saved is a dollar earned, and instead of hiring they are helping each other and are consequently not in a position to haul grain until the threshing is all completed, as it requires all the help of the different neighborhoods to man the threshing machinery. The price, however, this year the calamity that the farmer will be called on to face, that is those who are compelled to sell on the present market. If the market was governed by supply and demand information might be gathered that a prospective price could be based on, but unfortunately the strongest evidence points to the fact that the living of the farmer and the living of consumer is simply a "jack pot" that is being played for by a band of speculators. That the market is now at the mercy of the "beats" is a certainty, and whether wheat will go lower or not is a question that is presently in their hands. That it will go higher is beyond a doubt, and those farmers who can hold till after the new year will certainly profit by the transaction. Last year after the stocks were out of the farmers' hands prices went up when foreign statistics showed a larger crop than at present. It was evidently the first venture and succeeded so well that the profits will be doubled this year, as indications point to a shortage of good wheat. The Commercial, a reliable trade journal, offers a solution by advising the farmers to cultivate their land carefully and raise a good quality of wheat. By doing this they would command the highest market price and would make more than by interfering with the dealers.
The first part of this advice is really good but unless farming can be kept profitable there are few people who would care to cultivate land at a loss or work the balance of their natural lives for a grain combine that is apparently not willing to allow a fair day's pay for a fair day's work. We are not a Van Horne nor do we follow the business of a prophet but we do predict that farmers who hold grain till the first of February will not be asked to take thirty-eight cents per bushel for it.

LOCAL.
At the Christian endeavor meeting last night in the Presbyterian church J. W. Kelly was elected president for the ensuing six months, Mr. Netleton vice president, and Miss S. C. Rogers secretary-treasurer.
On Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 12th, the members of the W. C. T. U. gave a "Five o'clock Tea," to their president, Mrs. (Rev.) A. McDonald, in recognition of her untiring efforts to uphold the cause of temperance, the admirable manner in which she has conducted the affairs of the union, and the esteem and respect in which she is held by the members. Mrs. McDonald is about to remove to South Edmonton, but at the earnest solicitations of the union has consented to retain the office of president for another year. Mrs. McDonald is an uncompromising prohibitionist, believing that the cause of temperance can only be effectually removed by the unconditional suppression of the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. The entertainment took place at the residence of Mrs. J. A. McDonald.—Com.

Last evening a transparency bearing the usual skull and crossbones and certain other illustrations and legends bearing upon the action which led to the seizure by the sheriff of the effects of the late W. T. Rees, immediately after his death, appeared on the street about nine o'clock in front of the building lately occupied by W. R. Howey as a butcher shop. After remaining there for some little time it was borne to the Imperial bank block in which is located the offices of the offending solicitors Messrs. S. S. & H. C. Taylor. An effigy supposed to represent the senior member of the firm was then hung from the telegraph wire and set on fire. When the rope by which it was hanging burst through, the effigy fell and was dragged down street as long as it held together. Several hundred people were present, but only a few actually took part in the proceedings, which were intended as a protest against the hasty and unseemly seizure. Mr. S. S. Taylor had already published a statement in our esteemed contemporary expressing regret for the seizure and stating that it had occurred through a mistake, but whether the public had not yet heard of this or doubted it because of the channel through which it appeared, they went on with the proceedings just the same; and were not interfered with by anyone in authority in their somewhat unusual method of expressing their feelings.
